Whare Tipu love reading!

Ako Hui are in Week 9 ...

Kia ora whānau, we are half way through the term already, and Ako Hui are in Week 9 on Thursday 22nd June. The tamariki are working hard on these presentations to share their learning with you. Please fill in the booking form on the back of this pānui with a time slot that suits you to come and see your child's mahi. Our goal is to have 100% attendance at this Ako Hui!

We have a Teacher Only Day booked for next Friday 2nd June. This will go ahead if the proposed Strike Action for next Wednesday 31st gets called off. The NZEI (Teacher's Union) is currently in negotiations and we won't know until this Sunday night what the outcome is. If the strike goes ahead next Wednesday then we will not be having our Teacher Only Day, if the strike doesn't happen then we will go ahead with our Teacher Only Day where we are working on curriculum updates.

We will have a few fundraisers coming up as our Year 6, and Year 7/8 look to do some mahi towards their respective camps at the end of the year. The first one is this Friday - a Bake Sale that the Year 6 tamariki are running. They will be selling baking treats that the tamariki can buy on Friday, so sending your tamariki with a coin to buy something to support this would be appreciated. The Year 7 and 8s will be running a fundraiser next week.

AKO HUI

Save the date. This is when tamariki will be sharing their learning with you. The booking form is on the back of this pānui

The new bike shed arrived this morning 😊

SICKNESS

Thank you for keeping your tamariki at home when they are sick and for letting us know. There have been a lot of bugs and illnesses around, from vomiting and diarrhoea, to strep throat, to the flu, and foot and mouth. All of these can be easily passed on to others, and we appreciate whānau sending through medical certificates and keeping tamariki at home until they are better.

SCHOOL GROUNDS AFTER HOURS

It is very busy after school with all the academies, sports practices and Book Club. We are still having lots of younger siblings waiting for tamariki involved in these. Please ensure that any tamariki not involved are picked up as this is disruptive for the activities and for staff who are still working.

We also have had teenagers playing in the kura outside of school hours, who have not been respectful of our kura. This has been disappointing, so just a reminder that school is not a place to play outside of school hours.

SPORTS TEAMS - TURNING UP

It is really important to turn up for teams that you have signed up to. We have had a couple of soccer teams playing short because of this. This lets down a whole team so please ensure you are committed. If you are sick or away let your coach know.

BANKING

45 bankers last week!
Well done everyone ... can we break the 50 this week!
