SAMOAN LANGUAGE WEEK

This week is Samoan Language Week and at Kaiti School we would like to help celebrate this by encouraging our tamariki and their whānau to learn some Samoan words and phrases. #lovelearningsamoan#

WINTER ILLS

Our attendance rate has dropped this week with 77% our attendance rate for Monday and 79% for Tuesday. With a lot of students still away with strep throat, flu, foot and mouth and other winter illnesses, we encourage whānau to keep their tamariki home if they are coughing or have flu like symptoms. Thank you to all our whānau who have been ringing the office or leaving messages to advise us of their child's absence from school.

SCHOOL GROUNDS AFTER HOURS

We are still noticing a lot of Kaiti kids playing at school after 2.30pm. If students are in a Sports Academy after school, they are at their respective trainings. However every one else needs to be on their way home or picked up please, this includes siblings of students who are training at Academies. This is causing a lot of disruption for sports groups who are training and staff members who are trying to coach at the academies. We appreciate your support with this whānau.

BANKING

Well done to the 43 tamariki that banked last Friday. Our top classrooms last week with 100% were Whare Korero and Wharekauri Teina. Once again our junior classrooms are leading the way with the most bankers. Lets see if our senior classrooms can improve on their numbers this week. This week we would like to welcome our newest banker, Te Ahiwera Aupouri who will be starting school in Term 3. #bankingmatters#

SPORTS UPDATE

Due to the long weekend there will be no rugby, soccer, netball or basketball games played on Saturday. However, we still have netball for our Year 1 & 2's on Thursday and our Year 3 & 4's on Friday. Enjoy the long weekend whānau.

SPORTS TEAMS

It is great to see all our little ones turning up for their games on the weekend, but unfortunately some of our senior students are letting their teams down. If you have made a commitment to play for a team then you must front up for your game on the weekend. If you are sick or are going to be away, please let your coach know.

TEACHERS ONLY DAY CANCELLED

Because school closed today at 12.30pm for a NZEI Teachers paid union meeting, we will not be having a Teachers Only Day this Friday, the 2nd June.
